

January 28, 2014
Contact: Mary Beth Lambert
206.335.0191
marybeth@educationvoters.org

Education training planned for February 8

A free parent and family summit, Access, Equity, & Excellence, will take place Saturday, February 8, at Sunnyside High School.

Sunnyside -- Access, Equity, & Excellence, a free summit for parents and community members hosted by the League of Education Voters (LEV), will take place Saturday, February 8, from 9 a.m.–5 p.m., at Sunnyside High School. Lunch and free childcare are provided. Inspire Development Centers is an event co-sponsor.

Two hundred parents and community members are expected to attend.

Workshops will be offered on a wide range of topics including:

- The basics of advocacy
- How to get involved in your child's education
- How to apply for the College Bound Scholarship
- Common sense school discipline
- The DREAM act

"Education touches all of us in every community across the state," says LEV CEO Chris Korsmo. "The time for hoping the growing achievement and opportunity gaps will close on their own is over. The need for action from parent and community members is urgent."

More information available at <http://educationvoters.org/get-involved/activist-training>

###

The League of Education Voters (LEV) is a non-partisan, nonprofit organization made up of parents, students, and leaders who believe in a quality education from cradle to career. LEV is the only Washington-based organization working to improve public education from early learning through higher education. We shape the debate, build powerful coalitions, and grow the grassroots to achieve meaningful reform and ample, equitable, and stable resources for education. www.educationvoters.org