Tax Cut for Mega- Millionaires

California hedge fund mega-millionaire Brian Heywood is back at it, bankrolling I-645 to give himself a tax cut, blowing a massive $13 billion hole in the state budget leading to cuts in core services K-12 education, child care, and healthcare.

Millionaires Tax is 9.9% tax on income more than $1 million/year

- $1,001,000 income = $90.90 in taxes
- Applies to less than 1%, just 22,000 mega-millionaires in WA

Does not apply to income from home or other real estate, retirement funds, or sales of small family businesses

What's At Risk

Cuts Billions From Education

Cut billions in funding for K-12 public schools, childcare, and higher education, leading to larger class sizes, fewer one-on supports

Hurts Working Families

Increases taxes for hundreds of thousands of families by taking away the Working Families Tax Credit, and raising sales taxes on over-the-counter medications, diapers, other essentials. Eliminates free school meals for many students

Makes WA's Taxes Even Worse

Increases B&O taxes for most small businesses. Makes our upside down tax code even worse for low and middle income families
